Thanks for your email.

Because of the sheer volume of media inquiries on the Gold King Mine incident, we ask that you please first try to answer your question using the information available at www.epa.gov/GoldKingMine.

The latest press releases are available at:

We just posted some frequently asked questions and will be adding additional questions daily as answers become available. You can check those out here:

If you have questions that can't be met through that material, please email press@epa.gov with "MEDIA REQUEST" in the subject line.

PS - For your safety and the safety of our employees, we ask that you do not visit the mine site on your own. Unscheduled media visits also impede our work to protect human health and the environment in this region.
